Objective

I worked in the corporate field for 3 years. Then, I took a sabbatical due to family commitments. Now, with 3 years of teaching experience and a strong passion for early childhood education, I seek an opportunity in a reputed school to nurture young minds. I am dedicated to fostering a stimulating learning environment, organizing engaging activities, and promoting holistic development in students. With experience in teaching and management, I look forward to apply my skills in a suitable organization for mutual growth. Therefore, I am currently looking for an opportunity to serve as a school teacher in a reputed school and share my knowledge.
